Frederick Community College Suggested Transfer Pathway

Catalog Year 2023-2024

Important Notes: The schools represented here are only a small sample of transfer options. Information is subject to change, and this suggested pathway is a guide, not a contract. Students should use this in consultation with an FCC advisor, the FCC catalog, ARTSYS (the state-wide online transfer system), and an advisor at the transfer institution. See the “Pathway Notes” section for more detailed information.

Full-time student: Follow the green semester blocks in order. Part-time student: Follow the blue course sequence at your own pace.

Pathway Notes

* must earn a grade of “C” or higher in this course

 additional HIST 200-level courses and/or two semester of the same foreign language are recommended.

 Recommend HIST 212 Civil War, HIST 213 History of the South, HIST 214 The Civil Rights Movement, HIST 215 Constitutional History of the United States, HIST 217 African American History, HIST 220 World War II, or HIST 221 The Sixties.

Transfer Institution Information

Hood Students who transfer to Hood College with a completed A.A. will have met Hood’s lower level general education core requirements, and will not need to take World Languages. Hood offers a Bachelor of Arts in History, a concentration in Public History, and minors in History and Public History.

Mount St. Mary’s offers a Bachelor of Arts in History with optional concentrations in Applied History – Digital and Applied History – History & Business.

University of Maryland College Park offers a Bachelor of Arts in History (with an area of concentration that is geographical, chronological, or thematic) and a History minor.

Towson offers a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science in History and a History Secondary Education Concentration.

Advising

Students should meet with an advisor each semester to carefully select and sequence courses based on their specific academic goals and interests.

The Counseling & Advising Office offers general advice: emailadvising@frederick.edu • 301.846.2471 • frederick.edu/advising

Program managers offer specific academic area advice: frederick.edu/programs

Completing the Pathway

Students who take fewer than 15 credits each semester or who require developmental English or math coursework will need additional semesters to complete their degrees. Summer and January term classes may help students to make faster progress.

General Education CORE courses can often be taken in any semester. One course must be designated as a Cultural Competence course. A minimum of nine credits must be taken at the 200 level. Refer to the college catalog (frederick.edu/class-schedules) for course details and the list of General Education and Cultural Competence classes.
