Men of Excellence – There are three pillars that guide the operation of the program: Support, Development, and Involvement. Students are supported through one on one meetings with professional staff members and peer mentors to allow time for goal setting, academic monitoring, and social support. Leadership skills are developed for MOE participants through study hall, participation in leadership activities, and community service opportunities. Lastly, students are encouraged to get involved through various campus lectures, exposure to campus resources, and our networking events with faculty/staff, and community leaders. For more information, contact Student Success Programs at studentsuccessprograms@frederick.edu.

Muslim Student Association – This club offers a supportive community for Muslim students and for all those who have an interest in the Muslim culture and/or religion. Approximately one meeting per month, so not a big commitment—just a chance to gather and build community. For more information, contact Erum Marfani at Emarfani@frederick.edu or Nichole Pollard at npollard@frederick.edu.

Performing Arts Club – The campus drama group produces a lively season of plays in FCC’s Jack B. Kussmaul Theater. Open to students, staff, and alumni, the plays provide opportunities for acting, stagecraft, and all aspects of theater production. For more information, contact Tad Janes at TJanes@frederick.edu.

Phi Theta Kappa – Alpha Delta Sigma is the campus chapter of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honors Society. While membership to Phi Theta Kappa is by invitation only based on cumulative grade point average and earned credit hours, the campus club is open to all students interested in leadership, scholarship, fellowship and service. For more information, contact Dr. Bruce Thompson at BThompson@frederic.edu.

Psychology Club – The purpose of this club is to share interests in learning about psychology and applying psychology to everyday life. This includes increasing our understanding of behavior and well-being. As a club, we will use our interests and knowledge in psychology to connect with and serve the local mental health community. For more information, contact Dr. Lisa DiDonato at LDiDonato@frederick.edu.
